ORDER ADOPTING MAGISTRATE’S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

On February 6, 2019, counsel for Defendant filed a motion pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4241 for a determination of the mental competency of the Defendant to stand trial. That motion was granted, and, prior to holding a hearing to determine the mental competency of the Defendant, the Court entered its Order pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4241(b) directing that a psychological or psychiatric examination of the Defendant be conducted and that a psychological or psychiatric report be filed with the Court pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4247(b) and (c).

A competency hearing was held before Magistrate Judge Lajuana M. Counts on June 10, 2019. At the hearing, the parties stipulated that the Court could consider the forensic psychological report of Allison Schenk, Ph.D., which concluded Defendant is competent to understand the nature and consequences of the proceedings against him and to assist properly in his defense. On June 11, 2019, Judge Counts entered a “Report and Recommendation” that Defendant be declared competent to stand trial. Neither party filed objections, and the time to do so has passed.

After an independent, de novo review of the record and applicable law, the Court

ADOPTS the Report and Recommendation of Judge Counts in its entirety, and finds

Defendant is competent to stand trial. It is further

ORDERED that, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(1)(A) and (h)(4), the time between February 6, 2019, and the date of this Order is excluded in computing the time within which the trial of this criminal action must commence. It is further

ORDERED that this case is placed on the joint criminal jury trial docket commencing on July 15, 2019.¹

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Date: June 26, 2019

¹ The Court notes that a motion for continuance is currently pending (Doc. 23), so it is likely the case will be continued until the December 2, 2019, trial docket.
